PINNACLE PICTURES, LLC PRESENTS

ROOTS AND WINGS

In life, there's always another chance for happiness.

FAMILY DRAMA / 104-PAGE SCRIPT

CONCEPT IMAGE

THE FILM

After fleeing an unwelcoming home, a teenage singer finds refuge with a grieving elderly man who lost his family. When her newfound success exposes her whereabouts and puts his freedom at risk, they discover they are more family than they ever knew.

THE STORY

After her mother's death, 17-year-old singer Emily finds shelter with Dan, a grieving elderly man who lost his wife and son. A shared love of music helps them rediscover hope, while her connection with Tommy draws them into his fight for a different future. A singing-contest photograph leads to Dan's arrest for sheltering a runaway. As Emily fights for him, a DNA test reveals he is her grandfather.

AUDIENCE

Family and coming-of-age audiences, country-music fans, and stories of faith, hope, and second chances.

SCOTT SELIG

EXECUTIVE PRODUCER

A financier working in real estate, aviation, and entertainment. Commercial pilot.

Director not yet attached.

PRODUCTION BUDGET

$1.2M

Total production budget

$300,000 principals · 25%
$900,000 partners · 75%

Includes cast and featured performer fees. Detailed budget available.

Texas preferred; location to be confirmed.

SEEKING FINANCING & DISTRIBUTION PARTNERS

ScottS@Pinnacle.Pictures

Pinnacle Pictures, LLC
Full script available under NDA.